JANUARY & FEBRUARY 2010 SUSU PRAYER

LETTER (Complete letter is in the prayer room)

PRAY for Guinea! We can see God's hand at work. PRAY that the military would all accept the agreement that has been made. PRAY for President Camara, who is still recovering from his head wound. PRAY that he would continue to recover, and that God would do a work in his life and in his heart.

- Keelan Cook, our journeyman is in need of your prayers. He has been diagnosed with kidney stones. Pray his kidney function has not been affected. PRAY that these stones will pass quickly and on their own.
- PLEASE PRAY for the Rehns as they spend their last week in the Gambia. They will leave on January 26th, and should be back in Guinea by the 28th.
- Pray for one of the Radicals, young Brazilian missionaries, returned to Brazil last month because of health issues. Please PRAY for Joyce, that she will have complete healing and be able to return to Guinea.
- The Sesays ask prayer for two teams that will be coming out in the next few months. PRAY also that Keelan will be well enough to join this team.
- PRAY for the schooling situation for the Freese children.

PRAY for Anne & Filipe, a young Brazilian couple who will be joining us here as career missionaries..

Thank you for your faithfulness in lifting us up to the Father.

Amy Freese for the Susu team
